The Organization processes payments for a guest house in Uganda to facilitate the flow of payments there by U.S.-based guests. Additionally, the Organization receives funds as an agent at times for the benefit of specific individuals, though the benefits fulfill the Organization's mission. There were no such liabilities as of year-end.

Part XIII Supplemental Information *(continued)Part X - FASB ASC 740 Footnote

Management has concluded that any tax positions which would not meet the more-likely-than-not criterion of Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) Accounting Standards Codification (ASC) Topic 740-10, Accounting for Income Taxes, would be immaterial to the financial statements taken as a whole. Accordingly, the accompanying financial statements do not include any provision for uncertain tax positions, and no related interest or penalties have been recorded in the operating statement or accrued in the statement of financial position. Federal and state tax returns of the Organization are generally open to examination by the relevant taxing authorities for a period of three years from the date on which the returns are filed.

Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US

The Organization conducts periodic field investigations and requires as much detailed financial reporting on the use of funds as the local grantees' resources enable them to provide. Funds requested by the grantees are not provided until sufficient accountability on the use of previous grants has been obtained.

Part I - Additional Supplemental Information

Part I, Line 1 - The region is severely under-developed. Accordingly, it does not have a multitude of entities from which to select as award recipients, and potential grantees do not often possess the ability to formally apply for grant funds in a manner in which the Organization would demand of an entity based in the United States. This, combined with the fact that the Organization's founder significantly pioneered the development in this area, help to meet the eligibility and selection criteria of the Organization.

Part I, Line 3f - Method of Accounting

The Organization uses the accrual method to report the assistance.

Part II, Line 1 - Method of Accounting

The Organization uses the accrual method to report the assistance.
