Part V Supplemental Information

Provide the information required by Part I, line 2 (monitoring of funds); Part I, line 3, column (f) (accounting method; amounts of investments vs. expenditures per region); Part II, line 1 (accounting method); Part III (accounting method); and Part III, column (c) (estimated number of recipients), as applicable. Also complete this part to provide any additional information. See instructions.

Part I, Line 2 - Grantmakers Explanation For Monitoring Use of Funds Outside US

The Organization conducts periodic field investigations and requires as much detailed financial reporting on the use of funds as the local grantees' resources enable them to provide. Funds requested by the grantees are not provided until sufficient accountability on the use of previous grants has been obtained.

Part I - Additional Supplemental Information

Part I, Line 1 - The region is severely under-developed. Accordingly, it does not have a multitude of entities from which to select as award recipients, and potential grantees do not often possess the ability to formally apply for grant funds in a manner in which the Organization would demand of an entity based in the United States. This, combined with the fact that the Organization's founder significantly pioneered the development in this area, help to meet the eligibility and selection criteria of the Organization.

Part I, Line 3f - Method of Accounting

The Organization uses the accrual method to report the assistance.

Part II, Line 1 - Method of Accounting

The Organization uses the accrual method to report the assistance.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 11b - Form 990 Review Process

Prior to filing, the entire Form 990 was reviewed by our executive director, board of directors, and ex-officio board members via email with an opportunity for questions to be asked. It was then approved by a majority vote of directors.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 12c - Explanation of Monitoring and Enforcement of Conflicts (continued)

Dealing with potential conflicts and the level at which determinations of whether a conflict exists are made - After disclosure of the financial interest and all material facts, and after any discussion with the interested person, he/she shall leave the governing board or committee meeting while the determination of a conflict of interest is discussed and voted upon. The remaining board or committee members shall decide if a conflict of interest exists.

Dealing with actual conflicts, the level at which actual conflicts are reviewed, and restrictions imposed on the interested person - An interested person may make a presentation at the governing board or committee meeting, but after the presentation, he/she shall leave the meeting during the discussion of, and the vote on, the transaction or arrangement involving possible conflict of interest. After exercising due diligence, the governing board or committee shall determine whether the Organization can obtain with reasonable efforts a more advantageous transaction or arrangement from a person or entity that would not give rise to a conflict of interest. If a more advantageous transaction or arrangement is not reasonably possible under circumstances not producing a conflict of interest, the governing board or committee shall determine by a majority vote of the disinterested directors whether the transaction or arrangement is in the Organization's best interest, for its own benefit, and whether it is fair and reasonable. In conformity with the above determination, it shall make its own decision as to whether to enter into the transaction.

Form 990, Part VI, Line 15a - Compensation Review & Approval Process - CEO & Top Management

In December 2013, the board reviewed data from the following sources: Community Council of Greater Dallas: DFW 2013 Nonprofit Salary & Benefits Survey; Texas Association of Nonprofit Organizations: The Compensation Report 2012; The NonProfit Times Salary and Benefits Survey, Feb. 1, 2013; and GuideStar Compensation Report 2013 (sample). The previous executive director was asked about her salary during her employment interview and proposed a substantially lower figure to assist the Organization. This proposal was accepted and approved by the board, and the corresponding wages were included in the budgets as formally approved and documented by the board for the subsequent years, including 2021.

In July 2021, the board created an Executive Compensation Committee ("Committee") to review compensation for the new executive director. The Committee reviewed data from the Nation Council of Non-Profits, the Foundation Group, The Council on Foundations, Economic Research Institute, and Guidestar to determine the methodology and process for determining fair executive compensation. From there, the Committee reviewed data from all Texas non-profits and Texas foundations based on data received from "Open990." Taking this data and limiting it to comparably-sized organization, the Committee determined that there are 25 Texas foundations and 95 Texas non-profits with assets less than $2,000,000 and that had revenues between $1,000,000 and $2,000,000. Based on the executive's experience level, the Committee determined to set the compensation level just below the average for these 120 comparable organizations. The results were submitted to the Board, and the compensation was approved by the Board.
